Maxx's Guiding Shadow

A Tribute Song

---

Intro - acoustic guitar

Verse 1

I remember when you first came home, a tiny pup, so grand
Your nails would click across the floor, my loyal, best friend
You'd snore with open eyes sometimes, a comforting, soft sound
And breathe so hard upon my lap, the sweetest dog around
Your spoiled bark, a happy plea, a signal loud and clear
And at the doorbell, you'd protect, banishing all fear

Chorus

Oh, Maxx, my handsome boy, it's true, you filled my life with light
For thirteen precious years with you, every single day and night
A loyal heart, a gentle soul, a love that won't depart
Maxx, you'll always have a hold upon my breaking heart

Verse 2

Our morning walks, fifteen minutes, exploring every path
The way you'd greet me at the door, after a long day's wrath
You'd follow me through every room, a shadow close behind
Asking for water with your gaze, a knowing, clever mind
Helping with mail and taking trash, your car rides, our long strolls
These simple moments, etched in time, forever fill my soul

Chorus

Oh, Maxx, my handsome boy, it's true, you filled my life with light
For thirteen precious years with you, every single day and night
A loyal heart, a gentle soul, a love that won't depart
Maxx, you'll always have a hold upon my breaking heart

Bridge

In those last moments, soft and low, I whispered close to you
"You're okay papi, let's go mimis," brave and strong and true
"Who is the most handsome boy?" I'd ask, you'd softly sigh
My Maxx, my love, it's not goodbye, but see you by and by

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Maxx, my handsome boy, it's true, you filled my life with light
For thirteen precious years with you, every single day and night
A loyal heart, a gentle soul, a love that won't depart
Maxx, you'll always have a hold upon my breaking heart

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

Now you are running, free from pain, with legs that soar and fly
Chasing sunshine, in the rain, beneath a boundless sky
Peaceful slumber, soft and deep, my good boy, rest serene
In every memory I keep, you're always in between.

Forever in our hearts
