Florida, My Morning Sunshine

A Tribute Song

Intro - Rhodes piano, nylon guitar

Verse 1

Eighteen years ago, a tiny heart so true,
A little Chihuahua, eyes of morning dew.
The very first day, a memory so clear,
You'd snuggle beside me, banishing all fear.
Your tiny paws resting, a comforting warm weight,
A love story beginning, sealed by gentle fate.

Chorus

Oh, Florida, my morning sunshine bright,
Eighteen years you filled my world with light.
A faithful companion, small but so grand,
Always there, holding my heart in your hand.

Verse 2

The quiet of dawn, just before the sun would rise,
Our sacred 6 AM cuddles, a treasure in your eyes.
A gentle nudge, a sleepy, tender sigh,
Our secret moments shared beneath the morning sky.
You taught me patience, a love so pure and deep,
While the rest of the world was still fast asleep.

Chorus

Oh, Florida, my morning sunshine bright,
Eighteen years you filled my world with light.
A faithful companion, small but so grand,
Always there, holding my heart in your hand.

Florida, My Morning Sunshine (continued)

Through seasons we wandered, through laughter and through tears,
You were always beside me, calming all my fears.
A constant presence, a shadow by my side,
With every quiet moment, my heart would open wide.
The tap-tap of your footsteps, a sound I held so dear,
Wishing I could keep you just one more precious year.

Chorus

Oh, Florida, my morning sunshine bright,
Eighteen years you filled my world with light.
A faithful companion, small but so grand,
Always there, holding my heart in your hand.

Bridge

My sweet baby girl, the time has come to part,
But your spirit remains etched deep within my heart.
My final whisper, a promise I will keep,
"Go run free, no more pain," while angels gently sleep.
"We'll be together again soon," that much I know is true.

Instrumental - soft strings, Rhodes piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Florida, my morning sunshine bright,
Eighteen years you filled my world with light!
A faithful companion, small but so grand,
Always there, holding my heart in your hand.

Outro

Now running free in the sun, so graceful and so bold,
No more pain, a story forever to be told.
My sweet baby girl, until we meet once more,
Go run free, across that golden shore.

Outro - Rhodes piano fade, nylon guitar
