Larky's Loving Gaze

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

Little Larky, a Corgi's delight,
You filled every moment with joy and with light.
Your loving spirit, so vibrant and true,
Made every car ride a journey anew.
With little short legs and a wagging sweet tail,
No grey morning could ever prevail.
Just the jingle of keys, a bark and a bound,
The happiest pup that could ever be found.

Chorus

Oh, Larky, my sweet, it was two precious years,
We shared every laugh, every joy, and some tears.
A bond woven deep, a love shining bright,
My dear Larky girl, my morning's first light.

Verse 2

The quietest moments, the best that we knew,
Waking each morning and falling asleep next to you.
Your soft, gentle presence right there by my side,
A feeling of comfort, nowhere to hide.
A little warm body, a breath soft and low,
My heart always knew that I loved you so.
Just curled in a ball, a perfect small friend,
A love that I wished would never quite end.

Chorus

Oh, Larky, my sweet, it was two precious years,
We shared every laugh, every joy, and some tears.

A bond woven deep, a love shining bright,
My dear Larky girl, my morning's first light.

Bridge

I whispered "I love you, my baby girl," so clear,
Though my heart ached with sorrow, I held you so near.
Now at the Rainbow Bridge, free from all pain,
I hope you are missing your mamma again.
Run freely and happy, no burden to bear,
Just joy and sweet peace in the light over there.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, harmonica, upright bass

Final Chorus

Oh, Larky, my sweet, it was two precious years,
We shared every laugh, every joy, and some tears.
A bond woven deep, a love shining bright,
My dear Larky girl, my morning's first light.

Outro

And though the years pass, my love will still bloom,
Waiting to meet you, beyond this sad room.
Running with grace, no shadow to cast,
A sweet memory, forever to last.

Outro - guitar fade
