Bear's Loyal Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

The day I walked in, silence filled the air
But one sturdy shadow, showed that someone cared
Just a little puppy, always came to greet
Your soft, rumbling welcome, always felt so sweet

Chorus

Oh, Bear, my sweet Bear, eleven years and a week so true
Every quiet moment, remembering you
Your gentle spirit lingers, a comfort to my soul
Making every broken piece feel whole

Verse 2

When all the house was quiet, and everyone would doze
Your steady heart would stir, your gentle snore arose
You'd watch over us softly, through the still of night
Our guardian in the darkness, our comfort and our light

Chorus

Oh, Bear, my sweet Bear, eleven years and a week so true
Every quiet moment, remembering you
Your gentle spirit lingers, a comfort to my soul
Making every broken piece feel whole

Verse 3

On our walks together, you'd decide when we were done
You'd stop and give that look, not one step more, eh son
Once we turned for home, you'd trot off down the lane

Bear's Loyal Heart (continued)

I walked our walk again today, lad, it's just not the same

Chorus

Oh, Bear, my sweet Bear, eleven years and a week so true
Every quiet moment, remembering you
Your gentle spirit lingers, a comfort to my soul
Making every broken piece feel whole

Verse 4

You'd follow room to room, wherever I would be
And sleep right at my feet, my faithful company
At mealtimes you would sit there, with those eyes I can't refuse
A gentle, begging gaze, a battle I would lose

Bridge

Thank you, lad, for just being the perfect dog, so true
A faithful heart I found, forever close to you
Your sturdy presence, a comfort and a light
Guiding me gently through the darkest night

Instrumental - piano, cello, soft strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Bear, my sweet Bear, eleven years and a week so true
Every quiet moment, remembering you
Your gentle spirit lingers, a comfort to my soul
Making every broken piece feel whole

Outro - piano fade, cello

At the Rainbow Bridge, I know you gently wait
Your loving spirit ready, to pass through the final gate
We'll cross it together, when my own journey's through Until then, sweet Bear, I dream of you

Forever in our hearts
