Beau's Gentle Rest

A Tribute Song

Intro - Rhodes piano, soft strings

Verse 1

When first we met, a bond took hold
A story of a love untold
Our beautiful boy, who rarely barked
A gentle spirit, softly marked

My husband's soulmate, by his side
On scooter rides, your spirit wide
Your instinct sharp, a knowing gaze
Guiding us through all our days.

Chorus

Oh, Beau, our faithful, loving friend
Thirteen wonderful years, until the end
You filled our home with quiet grace
A love no one can quite replace.

Verse 2

Each evening came, a cherished scene
With you between us, so serene
My comforter when tears would fall
You answered every silent call

We're lost and bereft, a quiet ache
For all the joy you used to make
Your loving presence, soft and deep
A watch you'd always gently keep.

Chorus

Oh, Beau, our faithful, loving friend

Beau's Gentle Rest (continued)

Thirteen wonderful years, until the end
You filled our home with quiet grace
A love no one can quite replace.

Bridge

We love you so very much, it's true
Nothing feels the same without you
We hope you're waiting, pure and bright
To greet us once more in the light.

Instrumental - cello, Rhodes piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Beau, our faithful, loving friend
Thirteen wonderful years, until the end
You filled our home with quiet grace
A love no one can quite replace.

Outro - soft hum, nylon guitar fade

Now running free in meadows fair
A peaceful spirit in the air
Your gentle rest, a sweet relief
Beyond our sorrow, beyond our grief.

Forever in our hearts
