Rocco's Tennessee Trail

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

From Tennessee, a boy named Rocco came,
With a fierce bark, he first spoke his name.
He loved a treat, no matter when or where,
A wagging tail, beyond compare.
From coming home to after every meal,
His happy dance, how good it made us feel.
Even strangers, he'd greet with open heart,
A belly rub, a brand new start.

Chorus

Oh, Rocco, sweet Rocco, our boy so true,
Twelve precious years, we shared with you.
Your loving spirit, a beacon bright,
Guiding us through the day and night.

Verse 2

When supper was done, the day grew calm and slow,
That's when our special moments started to glow.
Close by our side, a gentle, happy sigh,
A well-earned belly rub, as moments flew by.
Another treat, a well-loved, sweet request,
You put our loyalty to the ultimate test.
Just being near you, peaceful and serene,
The best companion we had ever seen.

Chorus

Oh, Rocco, sweet Rocco, our boy so true,
Twelve precious years, we shared with you.

Your loving spirit, a beacon bright,
Guiding us through the day and night.

Bridge

Thank you for all the love you freely gave,
To every soul, a kindness you would save.
Your gentle presence, always near,
Chasing away every doubt and fear.

Instrumental - harmonica solo, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Rocco, sweet Rocco, our boy so true,
Twelve precious years, we shared with you.
Your loving spirit, a beacon bright,
Guiding us through the day and night.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

Now running free, where endless green fields lie,
With other dogs, beneath a boundless sky.
Rocco's spirit, wild and pure,
Forever in our hearts, forever more.

Forever in our hearts
