Blizzard's Promise Kept

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

A fluffy shadow, white as snow, upon the kitchen floor
You followed close where'er I'd go, and asked for nothing more
My little "lovable brat," I'd call, with fondness in my tone
A Maltese Shitzu, standing tall, though tiny, never alone.

Chorus

Oh, Blizzard, my sweet boy, for thirteen precious years
You filled my life with endless joy, and chased away my tears
Now silence fills the house, where your small steps once ran
A paw print on my heart, part of a loving plan.

Verse 2

When twilight came, and day was done, your high spirits still would gleam
I'd scoop you up, my playful one, living out a tender dream
Popped you gently in your bed, a blanket soft and deep
Tucked in like a baby, where you peacefully would sleep.

Chorus

Oh, Blizzard, my sweet boy, for thirteen precious years
You filled my life with endless joy, and chased away my tears
Now silence fills the house, where your small steps once ran
A paw print on my heart, part of a loving plan.

Bridge

My baby boy, with whispered words, a promise I would make
"No one will ever hurt you," for goodness gracious sake
I kept that vow, my darling friend, until your final sigh

Love you, baby boy, until the stars fall from the sky.

Instrumental - cello, violin

Final Chorus

Oh, Blizzard, my sweet boy, for thirteen precious years
You filled my life with endless joy, and chased away my tears
Now silence fills the house, where your small steps once ran
A paw print on my heart, part of a loving plan.

Outro - piano fade, strings

Now across the rainbow bridge, where gentle breezes blow
You're trying to get the other pups to play, in fields of endless snow
Blizzard, run free, my cherished friend, your spirit light and bold
A story of true love, forever to be told.

Forever in our hearts
