Mr. Teddy Bear's Gentle Dream

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, harp

Verse 1

From the moment that we met, a little corgi, strong and bold
You'd stand guard when we ate, a story often told.
Protecting all your 'babies', with a watchful, loving gaze
And chasing every squirrel through sunlit, happy days.
You loved your walks with neighbor Peterson, a joyful, steady stride
To Andrew's house, a special trip, with nothing left to hide.
A fighter through your sickness, always strong and keen.
The most loyal friend, the best we'd ever seen.

Chorus

Oh, Mr. Teddy Bear, our hearts still hold you near
Seven years of pure delight, banishing all fear.
A love so true, a bond so deep, a spirit shining bright
Our sweet Mr. Teddy Bear, our endless, guiding light.

Verse 2

When dad would work on projects, you were right there by his side
Then curl up for video games, with nothing left to hide.
For "num ma numms" and "snack time," you'd come running with a bark
Ignoring us before, then lighting up the dark.
At bedtime, water ready, then you'd race up every stair
For your special bone, a moment that we loved to share.
You'd jump on mom for kisses, a furry, happy splash
Every moment was a treasure, gone in a loving flash.

Chorus

Oh, Mr. Teddy Bear, our hearts still hold you near
Seven years of pure delight, banishing all fear.

Mr. Teddy Bear's Gentle Dream (continued)

A love so true, a bond so deep, a spirit shining bright
Our sweet Mr. Teddy Bear, our endless, guiding light.

Verse 3

With sister Jasmine, you would wrestle, gentle, strong, and true,
Always letting her have victory, in everything you'd do.
Car rides were a pleasure, wind upon your happy face,
Exploring new horizons, at your own contented pace.
Though dinner calls sometimes, you'd make us wait and see,
Until "num ma nums" was uttered, then you'd rush to us with glee.
And when the water started running, for your nightly, peaceful rest,
You'd race upstairs for your bone, a ritual you loved the best.

Bridge

You are everything now, our brave and gentle boy
So go and play in heaven, filled with endless joy.
No more pain, just happy fields, where sweet dreams softly gleam
Our dearest Mr. Teddy Bear, a beautiful, gentle dream.

Harp Solo - piano, strings

Our brave, sweet Mr. Teddy Bear, the best we've ever seen.
