Bailey's Morning Sun

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, mandolin

Verse 1

I recall the day we first met, a tiny fluffball I'd never forget
A Pomeranian, cream and so small, I knew in my heart I needed it all
With a human-like smile, so gentle and bright, my reason to wake, my morning's first light
A calm, chilled shadow, always near, banishing sorrow, calming all fear

Chorus

Oh, sweet Bailey, my little cream fluff, almost eight wonderful years were enough
Though my heart aches now, you're always near, my sunshine, my fighter, banishing every tear

Verse 2

Our morning walks in the park, such a joy, and in your stroller, a happy little toy
Your click-clack nails, then your warning bark, a comfort to hear, a light in the dark
With two teeth remaining, your sweet tongue would show, for treats after walks, you loved them so
You melted all hearts, a treasure untold, a tiny love story, worth more than gold

Chorus

Though my heart aches now, you're always near, my sunshine, my fighter, banishing every tear

Bridge

Through good times and bad, you stood by my side, my love, my whole world, my spirit, my guide
For choosing your Mum, I'm eternally blessed, thank you, sweet girl, now it's time to rest

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Final Chorus

Bailey's Morning Sun (continued)

Though my heart aches now, you're always near, my sunshine, my fighter, banishing every tear

Outro - acoustic guitar, mandolin fade

Now with your brothers, you're running so free, no pain in your stride, for all the world to see
Playing and watching, from up above, my beautiful Bailey, surrounded by love

Forever in our hearts
