Casper's Meadow Run

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

Remember the first day, a little Westie pup so small,
With tiny wagging tail, ready to give your all.
Those belly rubs you cherished, a pure and simple joy,
And how you'd greet us daily, our faithful, happy boy.
A moment's absence felt like weeks, you'd jump and dance and spin,
Such boundless love and laughter, from deep within your skin.
Your joyful barks, a welcome tune, a sweet and happy sound,
The best dog in the whole wide world, we truly always found.

Chorus

Oh, Casper, our sweet Casper, you walked beside us so true,
Eleven cherished years, a precious bond with you.
Every paw print left a memory, forever in our heart,
Though now we're miles apart.

Verse 2

I close my eyes and see you, curled close beside my side,
Those quiet sofa moments, with nowhere left to hide.
Your soft head on my lap, a comfort deep and true,
A silent understanding, in everything we'd do.
The world outside could fade away, when we were in that space,
Just quiet love and gentle peace, upon your trusting face.
Your little snores a melody, so peaceful and so deep,
A love so pure and gentle, the memories we keep.

Chorus

Oh, Casper, our sweet Casper, you walked beside us so true,
Eleven cherished years, a precious bond with you.

Every paw print left a memory, forever in our heart,
Though now we're miles apart.

Bridge

And with a final whisper, my heart spoke soft and low,
"Go run through all the streams you can find, and let your spirit glow.
Have tremendous fun, my sweet boy, wild and free and bold,
We'll be together again someday, a story to unfold."

Instrumental - mandolin, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Casper, our sweet Casper, you walked beside us so true,
Eleven cherished years, a precious bond with you.
Every paw print left a memory, forever in our heart,
Though now we're miles apart.

Outro - harmonica, acoustic guitar fade

Now you're sleeping in the sunshine, warm upon the ground,
Running through endless meadows, where joy can now be found.
Leaping through the streams, a happy, splashing sound,
Forever free, our Casper, always around.

Forever in our hearts
