Lucky's Gentle Refuge

A Tribute Song

Intro - Rhodes piano, soft strings

Verse 1

My little son, my refuge, my dearest love
A fluffy white Maltese, sent from above
Now my home, my bed, they feel so cold and bare
A vast void you've left, too much to bear

Chorus

Oh, Lucky, my sweet boy, my precious little friend
For five years and five months, our love had no end
A part of my soul, a piece of my heart
Now a world without you, torn so far apart

Verse 2

Our goodbyes were special, a knowing gaze
You'd wait at the window, through all of my days
At two in the morning, your face I would see
No matter the hour, you'd be waiting for me
Now the window is empty, the quiet profound
No joyful welcome, no sweet happy sound

Chorus

Oh, Lucky, my sweet boy, my precious little friend
For five years and five months, our love had no end
A part of my soul, a piece of my heart
Now a world without you, torn so far apart

Verse 3

We played our game of hide-and-seek so well

Lucky's Gentle Refuge (continued)

Then bath time meant a story, you'd run and rebel
"Doesn't my darling want a bath?" I'd softly say
Those moments of laughter brightened every day
Returning from work, tired as could be
Your kisses and joy, brought peace back to me
Unconditional love, a comfort so deep
My Lucky, my furry baby, my heart you will keep

Chorus

Oh, Lucky, my sweet boy, my precious little friend
For five years and five months, our love had no end
A part of my soul, a piece of my heart
Now a world without you, torn so far apart

Bridge

My sweet love, remember, Mommy loves you still Across this great void, my heart you fill
A whisper I send, on a soft evening breeze
May you find your peace now, and be forever at ease

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Lucky, my sweet boy, my precious little friend
For five years and five months, our love had no end
A part of my soul, a piece of my heart
Now a world without you, torn so far apart

Outro

In my heart, the void remains, an inexplicable pain
I miss you, my Lucky, through sunshine and rain
I hope you are resting, on clouds soft and white
My sweet Lucky, my love, sleep well through the night

Outro - piano fade, soft strings

Forever in our hearts
