Jordy's Gentle Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, soft strings

Verse 1

From the very first day, a tiny white fluff,
You decided my heart was more than enough.
A Bichon Poodle, with eyes full of plea,
Your constant desire to just be near me.
You stood by my side, a small, furry guard,
Protecting your human, with love disregarded.
A shadow so sweet, a comfort so true,
In your quiet devotion, I found all I knew.

Chorus

Oh, Jordy, my boy, through fifteen long years,
You brought so much joy, and wiped away tears.
My best little friend, so loyal and bright,
You filled every day with your sweet, gentle light.

Verse 2

On the couch watching TV, you'd snuggle so near,
Chasing away every worry and fear.
And when I came home, no matter how long,
You'd leap on my legs, singing your happy song.
"Hello mommy!" your barks seemed to say,
A welcome so vibrant, brightening my day.
Such boundless excitement, a pure loving sight,
You always made everything feel so right.

Chorus

Oh, Jordy, my boy, through fifteen long years,
You brought so much joy, and wiped away tears.

My best little friend, so loyal and bright,
You filled every day with your sweet, gentle light.

Bridge

You were my best friend, I whisper it low,
When I was unwell, you'd refuse to let go.
Not even to potty, you'd stay by my side,
In your steadfast presence, my heart would confide.
A bond like no other, forever entwined,
The truest companion, I ever could find.

Instrumental - cello, piano, flute

Final Chorus

Oh, Jordy, my boy, through fifteen long years,
You brought so much joy, and wiped away tears.
My best little friend, so loyal and bright,
You filled every day with your sweet, gentle light.

Outro

Now you're doing zoomies, free as the air,
With endless Charlie bears, beyond all compare.
No more pain, just pure joy, in a heavenly run,
My sweet, gentle Jordy, beneath the bright sun.

Outro - strings fade
