Jeter's Campfire Curl

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

I remember the first day, just a tiny little puff,
With the frito smell on your feet, I couldn't get enough.
Your barrel chest, so proud, your little crooked teeth,
And the softness of your curls, a comfort underneath.

Chorus

Oh, Jeter, sweet Jeter, a joy in every day,
For fifteen years and more, you brightened up my way.
My little Pom Pom heart, forever etched in time,
A love like ours, my dear, truly sublime.

Verse 2

So many quiet moments, just you and I in bed,
Cuddling close each morning, peaceful dreams in your head.
You'd bark at every shadow, guardian of the pane,
And chase away the worries, through sunshine and through rain.

Chorus

Oh, Jeter, sweet Jeter, a joy in every day,
For fifteen years and more, you brightened up my way.
My little Pom Pom heart, forever etched in time,
A love like ours, my dear, truly sublime.

Bridge

Though silence fills the house now, and your paw prints aren't there,
A whisper in my spirit, a love beyond compare.
You will always be the love of my life, my cherished friend,

A bond like ours, sweet boy, will never truly end.

Guitar Solo - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Final Chorus

Oh, Jeter, sweet Jeter, a joy in every day,
For fifteen years and more, you brightened up my way.
My little Pom Pom heart, forever etched in time,
A love like ours, my dear, truly sublime.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade, soft hum

Now you're checking the perimeter, up there in the blue,
Or making a soft puppy nest, waiting there for me and you.
Just running free in heaven, my sweet boy, so bright.
My Jeter, my sweet Jeter, goodnight.

Forever in our hearts
