Vito's Morning Serenade

A Tribute Song

---

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

The quiet dawn would start to break
A gentle presence we would wake
You'd snuggle close, a tiny friend
Our morning routine, without end
A belly scratch, a gentle rub
Before you'd leave your sleeping club
Our little Maltese Shih Tzu sweet
Making every morning complete

Chorus

Oh Vito, our good little boy
You filled our lives with endless joy
For almost fourteen golden years
You chased away all of our fears

Verse 2

Each morning had its sacred pace
A happy walk, with joyful grace
The clatter of a plastic bottle cap
You'd chase and pounce right in my lap
You watched us eat, with hopeful gaze
Through all your sweet and charming ways
We loved to spoil you, little dear
Wishing you were always here

Chorus

Oh Vito, our good little boy
You filled our lives with endless joy

---

Vito's Morning Serenade (continued)

For almost fourteen golden years
You chased away all of our fears

Bridge

Miss you awful, we still often say
Wishing you could stay another day
You were such a good little boy, it's true
Our hearts will always ache for you

Instrumental - cello, piano

Final Chorus

Oh Vito, our good little boy
You filled our lives with endless joy
For almost fourteen golden years
You chased away all of our fears

Outro

Now you're with Lily, free and bright
Beneath the warm and endless light
Eating treats, without a care
Our love for you is everywhere.

Outro - strings fade

Forever in our hearts
