Snowie's Gentle Morning Light

A Tribute Song

---

Intro - Rhodes piano, nylon guitar

Verse 1

The sound of the car, a familiar tune,
You'd race to the door, beneath sun or moon.
My little white shadow, a blur of pure glee,
A fluffy white cloud, always waiting for me.
With tiny bright paws, a heart full of light,
You banished the shadows, and made everything bright.
A sweet Bichon friend, so precious and small,
My first memory, answering freedom's call.

Chorus

Oh Snowie, my dear, it's hard to believe,
Eleven long years, we were meant to receive.
Almost twelve wonderful, tender and true,
My sweet gentle Snowie, I'll always miss you.

Verse 2

The morning would break, a soft golden hue,
You'd sit by my bed, eyes patiently blue.
Just waiting for me, to stir from my sleep,
Our day to begin, secrets we'd keep.
Your head on the duvet, a comforting sight,
Bringing warmth to my waking, chasing away night.
A silent agreement, a loving shared bond,
Of all of my memories, this one is so fond.

Chorus

Oh Snowie, my dear, it's hard to believe,
Eleven long years, we were meant to receive.

Almost twelve wonderful, tender and true,
My sweet gentle Snowie, I'll always miss you.

Verse 3

At the dog park now, you're the star of the show,
With big gentle eyes, where all the treats go.
Talking to adults, with a charming soft plea,
Every heart you encountered, fell instantly.
So loved by your friends, in that special bright place,
A smile on each face, just seeing your grace.
You gather around, with a happy soft sigh,
My sweet beloved Snowie, beneath a blue sky.

Bridge

Go run free now, as far as you please,
No more pain, a gentle, soft breeze.
You are free to run again, light and so bold,
The pain is all gone, a story untold.
Don't be afraid, my brave little heart,
You're always with me, though we are apart.

Instrumental - soft strings, piano

Final Chorus

Oh Snowie, my dear, it's hard to believe,
Eleven long years, we were meant to receive.
Almost twelve wonderful, tender and true,
My sweet gentle Snowie, I'll always miss you.

Outro

Now you're running free, in that bright, happy place,
With joy in your heart, and peace on your face.
Rest easy now, sweet Snowie, light as a feather,
We'll always be bound, in this love, forever.

Outro - Rhodes piano fade

Forever in our hearts
