Luna's Gentle Breeze

A Tribute Song

Intro - Rhodes piano, soft strings

Verse 1

Tiny footsteps, light and quick, a patter on the floor
Rushing to the kitchen's flick, demanding something more
A gentle clink, a happy sigh, would set your spirit bright
My fluffy friend, beneath the sky, a beacon of pure light

Chorus

Oh, Luna, my sweet Luna, through fourteen years we grew
A bond of pure affection, a love so deep and true
You taught my heart to open, in ways I'd never known
My precious, darling Luna, a love that brightly shone

Verse 2

Then came the nights so peaceful, when I would softly croon
My made-up songs, a sweet release, beneath the silent moon
Your head upon my shoulder, your breathing soft and deep
Together in that slumber, our quiet promises we'd keep

Chorus

Oh, Luna, my sweet Luna, through fourteen years we grew
A bond of pure affection, a love so deep and true
You taught my heart to open, in ways I'd never known
My precious, darling Luna, a love that brightly shone

Verse 3

Through sunlit days and stormy skies, you were my constant friend
Reflected in your loving eyes, a comfort without end
A quiet presence by my side, a shadow soft and near

My little guardian, full of pride, calming every fear

Chorus

Oh, Luna, my sweet Luna, through fourteen years we grew
A bond of pure affection, a love so deep and true
You taught my heart to open, in ways I'd never known
My precious, darling Luna, a love that brightly shone

Bridge

Now when the wind moves soft and low, through tall grasses so high
Or sunlight dances, soft and slow, beneath an open sky
I know that's where you're chasing joy, with spirit wild and free
Still carrying these pieces of our hearts, dear Luna, with me

Instrumental - soft strings, Rhodes piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Luna, my sweet Luna, through fourteen years we grew
A bond of pure affection, a love so deep and true
You taught my heart to open, in ways I'd never known
My precious, darling Luna, a love that brightly shone

Outro - Rhodes piano, nylon guitar fade

Running again, young and bright, where gentle breezes play
Free from shadows of the night, at the close of every day
My sweet Luna, you are home, beneath the endless blue
Still chasing joy, no longer alone, my heart still dreams of you

Forever in our hearts
