Buddy's Gentle Rumble

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

The quiet click of nails on tile, a sound we knew so well
A shadow following for a while, a loyal story it would tell
Our Buddy, a bulldog, strong and true, with a heart so pure and grand
Always by our side, me and you, the best friend in the land.

Chorus

Oh, Buddy, our dear sweet boy, with eyes so kind and deep
For three and a half years, you brought us joy, precious memories we will keep
A love so pure, a bond so strong, forever in our hearts you'll stay
You taught us where we truly belong, lighting up each passing day.

Verse 2

When we walked through the door, weary and worn, your presence filled the air
Your "I love you" stretch, greeted the morn, a special moment beyond compare
A rumble of joy, a happy sigh, beneath your watchful, loving eye
You made our house feel like a home, beneath the vast, blue sky.

Chorus

Oh, Buddy, our dear sweet boy, with eyes so kind and deep
For three and a half years, you brought us joy, precious memories we will keep
A love so pure, a bond so strong, forever in our hearts you'll stay
You taught us where we truly belong, lighting up each passing day.

Verse 3

Your gentle snores, a peaceful sound, in the quiet of the night
The way you'd lean when we sat down, a comforting and tender light
A loyal heart, so true and grand, a spirit brave and free

Buddy's Gentle Rumble (continued)

The best companion, paw in hand, for all the world to see.

Chorus

Oh, Buddy, our dear sweet boy, with eyes so kind and deep
For three and a half years, you brought us joy, precious memories we will keep
A love so pure, a bond so strong, forever in our hearts you'll stay
You taught us where we truly belong, lighting up each passing day.

Bridge

A whisper now, across the air, though you're no longer here
Your loving spirit, everywhere, banishing all fear
We all love you, son, go play, run free and feel the sun
Until we meet again, some day, your race is beautifully run.

Instrumental - cello, strings, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Buddy, our dear sweet boy, with eyes so kind and deep
For three and a half years, you brought us joy, precious memories we will keep
A love so pure, a bond so strong, forever in our hearts you'll stay
You taught us where we truly belong, lighting up each passing day.

Outro - piano fade, string shimmer

He's cuddling his teddys, soft and worn, in a place beyond all pain
Chewing his toys, from dusk till morn, until we meet again.

Forever in our hearts
