KayCee's Golden Slumber

A Tribute Song

Intro - Rhodes piano, soft strings

Verse 1

The quiet of the morning, just before the sun,
I'd feel your tiny body, my sweet little one.
Your soft fur on the pillow, a comforting warm sigh,
Those gentle little kisses, to greet the sleepy eye.

Chorus

Oh, KayCee, my dear friend, in three short years we knew,
A love so pure and tender, in everything you'd do.
You left a paw print on my heart, a memory so clear,
My little sleeping angel, I wish that you were here.

Verse 2

No matter how my day was, a long and weary while,
Your happy little greeting, always brought a smile.
A wagging tail at the doorway, a joyful little sound,
The sweetest face to wake to, the best boy to be found.

Chorus

Oh, KayCee, my dear friend, in three short years we knew,
A love so pure and tender, in everything you'd do.
You left a paw print on my heart, a memory so clear,
My little sleeping angel, I wish that you were here.

Bridge

This quiet house feels empty, a space you left behind,
A love so pure, my sweet boy, so precious and so kind.
I will always miss you, until I can hold you again,

A comfort for my sorrow, a bond that will not end.

Instrumental - cello solo, Rhodes piano

Final Chorus

Oh, KayCee, my dear friend, in three short years we knew,
A love so pure and tender, in everything you'd do.
You left a paw print on my heart, a memory so clear,
My little sleeping angel, I wish that you were here.

Outro

Now you're sleeping in the sunshine, warm upon the ground,
Chasing all the big dogs, without a single sound.
Running free and happy, beneath a sky so blue,
My sweet KayCee, always, my heart belongs to you.

Outro - Rhodes piano fade, soft strings

Forever in our hearts
