Prince's Gentle Paw

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic piano, synth pad

Verse 1

You were small and didn't like the outside world so grand,
Preferred the comfort of our familiar, loving land.
But Nanny's house held joy, a special place to be,
Where Bubbles, Louie, Bella waited patiently.

Chorus

Oh, Prince, my dearest friend, for thirteen loving years,
You filled our home with joy, calming all our fears.
A tiny shadow, always close beside my heart,
It's hard to be apart, right from the very start.

Verse 2

Beneath the covers, at my feet, you loved to softly lie,
A cozy comfort as the quiet hours went gently by.
And with a little ball, your tail would quickly wag,
Your favorite game, no doubt, never a simple drag.

Chorus

Oh, Prince, my dearest friend, for thirteen loving years,
You filled our home with joy, calming all our fears.
A tiny shadow, always close beside my heart,
It's hard to be apart, right from the very start.

Bridge

My whispered words still echo, softly through the air,
Meet up with Ruby now, my love, beyond compare.
Until the day arrives, when all of us unite,

Prince's Gentle Paw (continued)

Bathed in eternal grace, and everlasting light.
Our bond unbroken, shining ever so bright,
A reunion waiting, a beautiful, hopeful sight.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Prince, my dearest friend, for thirteen loving years,
You filled our home with joy, calming all our fears.
A tiny shadow, always close beside my heart,
It's hard to be apart, right from the very start.

Outro - piano fade

Now running free with Ruby, across the endless green,
The happiest of friends, a beautiful, peaceful scene.
No longer bound by time, just soft and gentle sleep,
Your loving memory, my Prince, forever I will keep.

Forever in our hearts
