Penn's Ocean Breeze

A Tribute Song

---

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

From the moment I first saw you, a love began to bloom,
A tiny soul, dispelling every trace of gloom.
My soulmate and companion, through cities, states, and skies,
Reflected in your kind and smartest eyes.
The prettiest and dearest, a joy in every day,
You brought such light and chased the clouds away.
With four sweet sons and one princess so grand,
Your loving pawprints etched across the land.

Chorus

Oh, Penn, my dear Penn, my heart still holds you near,
For fifteen years and days, you banished every fear.
A whisper in the quiet, a love that softly glows,
The purest bond my spirit ever knows.

Verse 2

The morning light would greet us, a gentle, waking sign,
For cuddles in the quiet, your soft fur next to mine.
Your happy sighs, a melody, a comfort deep and true,
Such simple joys, forever tied to you.
Your playful spirit dancing, a wagging, joyful tail,
A loving friend who never seemed to fail.
Through every sunlit morning, and shadows softly cast,
Our tender moments, built to ever last.

Chorus

Oh, Penn, my dear Penn, my heart still holds you near,
For fifteen years and days, you banished every fear.

Penn's Ocean Breeze (continued)

A whisper in the quiet, a love that softly glows,
The purest bond my spirit ever knows.

Bridge

The hardest words were whispered, as shadows started to creep,
But in my heart, your memory I'll always keep.
I will love you always, beyond the fading light,
Guiding me through every lonely night.

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Penn, my dear Penn, my heart still holds you near,
For fifteen years and days, you banished every fear.
A whisper in the quiet, a love that softly glows,
The purest bond my spirit ever knows.

Outro

Now by the ocean's shoreline, with wind upon your face,
Running free and joyful, in a peaceful, hallowed space.
A gentle wave is calling, your spirit takes its flight,
Sleeping now in everlasting light.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

Forever in our hearts
