Kiki's Fireside Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

I remember the first time, our spirits intertwined
A connection so tender, a love of a different kind
Pressing close against me, wanting to sit on my lap
Reaching out for my hand, no turning back

Precious time by the fire, as the night grew still and deep
Then walks out in the garden, secrets for us to keep You'd chirp at the birds, with a curious, sweet sound
The happiest creature that I had ever found

Chorus

Oh, Kiki, my Kiki, for three precious years you stayed
A loyal, loving presence, a memory softly made
Your paw prints on my soul, a love that won't depart
Always cherished, Kiki, my Kiki's fireside heart

Verse 2

After dinner, the fire glowed, our cuddles would begin
Watching football on Sundays, as the world moved on within Nestled close beside me, a comfort warm and true
Every quiet moment, I shared them all with you

Your gentle breathing near me, a soft and peaceful hum
Knowing you were happy, your sweet spirit overcome
With love for every moment, by my side you would remain
Chasing shadows, chasing worries, through sunshine and through rain

Chorus

Oh, Kiki, my Kiki, for three precious years you stayed

A loyal, loving presence, a memory softly made
Your paw prints on my soul, a love that won't depart
Always cherished, Kiki, my Kiki's fireside heart

Verse 3

The gentle brush against my leg, a greeting soft and low
Your quiet, knowing glances, a silent, loving glow
I'd watch your curious spirit, explore each hidden nook
Then settle in beside me, with an understanding look

Your playful paws would bat and chase, at dust motes in the air
A tiny, graceful hunter, beyond all earthly care
You taught me joy in simple things, a lesson pure and deep
Precious moments, Kiki, that my heart will always keep

Chorus

Oh, Kiki, my Kiki, for three precious years you stayed
A loyal, loving presence, a memory softly made
Your paw prints on my soul, a love that won't depart
Always cherished, Kiki, my Kiki's fireside heart

Verse 4

She'd climb upon my chest, a comfort I still crave
Pressing to my neck, a love that always gave
For extra warmth and closeness, her sweet purr I'd feel
A precious, quiet moment, eternally so real

Our walks through yard and garden, where she would gladly go
Listening to the birdsong, soft and sweet and low
Then drifting off to slumber, by tall grasses gently swayed
Her peaceful, happy spirit, a memory softly made

Bridge

Now chase the crows, my darling, let your spirit fly so free
I still feel your heart beat, a part of you with me
We will see each other again, when the stars align above
Until then, sweet Kiki, rest wrapped in all my love

Guitar Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Kiki, my Kiki, for three precious years you stayed
A loyal, loving presence, a memory softly made
Your paw prints on my soul, a love that won't depart

Always cherished, Kiki, my Kiki's fireside heart

Outro - guitar fade

Now walking in gardens, where tall grasses gently sway

Listening to the birdsong, with no more pain today

Resting by the reams, beneath a sky so clear

Peaceful and beloved, my sweet Kiki, ever near.

Forever in our hearts
