Eddie, My Steadfast Star

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

The day you came, a quiet friend so true,
A gentle presence, strong and brand new.
My service dog, my anchor and my guide,
Always steadfast, right by my side.
Through every challenge, big or small,
You answered softly to my call.
My silent strength, my loving paw,
You understood life's deepest law.

Chorus

Oh, Eddie, my steadfast star,
For seven precious years, no matter how far,
Your loyal heart, a beacon bright,
Filling my world with endless light.

Verse 2

Each rising sun, your loving gaze I'd meet,
A silent promise, ever so sweet.
Through every moment, dark or bright,
You were my comfort, my guiding light.
A quiet nudge, a steady paw,
Living your life without a flaw.
You knew my spirit, deep inside,
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide.

Chorus

Oh, Eddie, my steadfast star,
For seven precious years, no matter how far,

Eddie, My Steadfast Star (continued)

Your loyal heart, a beacon bright,
Filling my world with endless light.

Bridge

Thank you for the years we shared, so rare,
For every moment, every loving care.
Keep watching over me, my dearest friend,
Until we meet at journey's end.

Instrumental - cello solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Eddie, my steadfast star,
For seven precious years, no matter how far,
Your loyal heart, a beacon bright,
Filling my world with endless light.

Outro

Now running free, on sunlit ground,
No leash to hold, no tether bound.
But still, I feel your gentle grace,
Watching over me from that peaceful place.

Piano fade
