Teddy's Wild and Free Spirit

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

A clever boy, a playful pup so small,
Invented games, he knew the rules for all.
He'd fly up high, a frisbee in the light,
A joyful blur, a truly wondrous sight.
With wagging tail, he'd greet each friendly face,
Excitement filled his happy little space.
Our bond grew strong, through all the passing years,
A love that calmed away our doubts and fears.

Chorus

Oh, Teddy Lee Carmelo, brave and true,
Sixteen sweet years we shared with only you.
Our good boy, loyal, cherished friend indeed,
The love you gave planted a lasting seed.

Verse 2

In quiet evenings, playtime filled the air,
Waiting for spouse, a moment we would share.
Though hind legs tired, and days grew hard to face,
Your love still shone, with subtle, gentle grace.
We looked out for you, through the confusing night,
Your spirit strong, a steady guiding light.
An honor true, from puppy to old age,
You turned each chapter to a precious page.

Chorus

Oh, Teddy Lee Carmelo, brave and true,
Sixteen sweet years we shared with only you.

Our good boy, loyal, cherished friend indeed,
The love you gave planted a lasting seed.

Bridge

Let your spirit run wild and free,
Fiercely loved, for all the world to see.
Though letting go brought heartache and such pain,
We set you free, to fly high once again.
Forever in our hearts, our good boy, our sweet grace,
The best companion, in your rightful place.

Instrumental - harmonica, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Teddy Lee Carmelo, brave and true,
Sixteen sweet years we shared with only you.
Our good boy, loyal, cherished friend indeed,
The love you gave planted a lasting seed.

Outro

Now jump up high, catch frisbees in the blue,
Bend balls like Beckham, just the way you'd do.
With Grandma, Maggie, playing in the sun,
Your wild, free spirit, forever on the run.

Outro - guitar fade
