Oscar's Brighter Days

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

I remember the first time, a small bark, a sound so new,
You saw something on the telly, and my heart just knew.
You'd suckle in the air, a comfort on my lap,
Feeling safe and sound, escaping every trap.

Chorus

Oh, Oscar, my darling boy, my steadfast friend,
For fourteen precious years, our love had no end.
You showed me brighter days, a hero in my heart,
A joyful, loving soul, right from the very start.

Verse 2

Evenings on the sofa, a cherished, gentle time,
Kissing your soft little chops, a moment so sublime.
Nibbling your sweet ear, you'd tolerate it all,
My smothering affection, answering every call.

Chorus

Oh, Oscar, my darling boy, my steadfast friend,
For fourteen precious years, our love had no end.
You showed me brighter days, a hero in my heart,
A joyful, loving soul, right from the very start.

Bridge

Thank you for saving me, for being my true hero's light,
Showing me brighter days of joy, turning darkness into bright.
I love you, my darling boy Oscar, more than words can say,

Oscar's Brighter Days (continued)

You taught me strength and kindness, guiding me each day.

Instrumental - ukulele, drums

Final Chorus

Oh, Oscar, my darling boy, my steadfast friend,
For fourteen precious years, our love had no end.
You showed me brighter days, a hero in my heart,
A joyful, loving soul, right from the very start.

Outro

Now you're watching over me, I feel your gentle grace,
Making sure I'm kind and strong, finding my own pace.
Living in each moment, as you always knew,
Honoring your spirit, in everything I do.

Outro - piano fade
