Veit's Steady Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

When I first saw your sweet, true gaze,
A Labrador's heart, in those early days.
You taught me "Lobe," a special command,
My very best friend, held close in my hand.
You loved to "schwimm," a joy to behold,
A story of loyalty, brave and bold.
With you beside me, I'd never walk alone,
A bond deeper than any stone.

Chorus

Oh, Veit, my dear Veit, almost thirteen years,
You chased away shadows, you calmed all my fears.
A steady heart beating, steadfast and pure,
Your love is a promise, forever secure.

Verse 2

Every moment with you was a special delight,
From morning's first sun to the quiet of night.
A gentle nudge, a comforting sigh,
Always there, with a loving eye.
Your playful spirit, a comforting sound,
The best boy any heart could have found.
Through every adventure, you led the way,
Brightening up each and every day.

Chorus

Oh, Veit, my dear Veit, almost thirteen years,
You chased away shadows, you calmed all my fears.

A steady heart beating, steadfast and pure,
Your love is a promise, forever secure.

Bridge

"I love you," I whispered, my voice soft and low,
"You have done all right, my dear, it's true, you know."
"See you again," a promise I'll keep,
As memories of you run wonderfully deep.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Veit, my dear Veit, almost thirteen years,
You chased away shadows, you calmed all my fears.
A steady heart beating, steadfast and pure,
Your love is a promise, forever secure.

Outro

Now sleeping softly, deep in my heart,
A new journey for you, a brand new start.
Playing in heaven, free and bright,
And watching over me, in the stillness of night.

Outro - guitar fade
