Their Gentle Whispers

A Tribute Song

Ethereal piano, harp

Verse 1

From the moment you arrived, a gentle, loving crew,
You brought a quiet comfort, in everything you'd do.
My sanity, my saviors, my everything, so true,
A peace of mind you offered, in skies of darkest blue.
My little MultiPoo, my special Karat Cat,
You filled my home with sunshine, just simply where you sat.
A bond beyond comparing, no moment was too flat,
My heart forever grateful, for all of that.

Chorus

Oh, LUNA, BELLA, LEXY & LEO,
Eighteen years of love, a beautiful, gentle glow.
In every cherished memory, our spirits intertwine,
A love like ours, forever, a truly sacred sign.

Verse 2

Through morning light and evening, and all through the day,
Your presence was a comfort, to chase the fears away.
A purr, a gentle nuzzle, in such a tender way,
You taught me endless patience, and how to truly play.
Each wagging tail, each watchful eye, a solace to my soul,
You made my fractured pieces, eternally feel whole.
From playful chase to quiet nap, you played an vital role,
A love that knew no ending, beyond all time's control.

Chorus

Oh, LUNA, BELLA, LEXY & LEO,
Eighteen years of love, a beautiful, gentle glow.

Their Gentle Whispers (continued)

In every cherished memory, our spirits intertwine,
A love like ours, forever, a truly sacred sign.

Bridge

Though sorrow holds me gently, a whisper guides my way,
No more pain, my darlings, not for a single day.
I know I'll find you waiting, beyond the earthly fray,
Until we meet again, my loves, I'll simply hope and pray.

Cello, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, LUNA, BELLA, LEXY & LEO,
Eighteen years of love, a beautiful, gentle glow.
In every cherished memory, our spirits intertwine,
A love like ours, forever, a truly sacred sign.

Outro

Now running free in tall grass, beneath a golden sky,
And watching over me, as peaceful moments fly.
A silent, gentle promise, beneath the clouds on high,
My precious ones, forever, in dreams you're always nigh.

Outro - harp fade
