Rockman's Endless Sunbeam

A Tribute Song

---

===Rockman's Sunbeam Lullaby===

===Gentle Acoustic Ballad, lullaby, Piano, soft acoustic guitar, ethereal strings (violins, cello), Soft, tender, whispery female vocals, Tempo: 65 BPM===

===

Intro - piano, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

A tiny whisper, a fragile start,
You found your way into my heart.
Tube feeding you, a tender quest,
You struggled hard, then found your rest.
A little soul, just three pounds small,
With loudest bark that charmed us all.
You stood your ground, a fearless pup,
And filled our home with so much love.

Chorus

Oh, Rockman, my sweet baby boy,
You brought eleven years of joy.
For nine long months and years so bright,
You filled my world with pure delight.

Verse 2

Our special moments, warm and deep,
Secrets that only we would keep.
Upon my lap, beneath the sun,
Our quiet time had just begun.
Your soft fur nestled, close and true,
My hand would stop, then you would nuzzle through.
A gentle nudge, a sweet demand,
To feel my touch, my loving hand.

Chorus

---

Oh, Rockman, my sweet baby boy,
You brought eleven years of joy.
For nine long months and years so bright,
You filled my world with pure delight.

Verse 3

From tiny start, to years so deep,
The most special boy my heart could keep.
Among your sisters, strong and bright,
You shone, my only little knight.
I watched you grow, from small to bold,
A story woven, more than gold.
Each memory, a treasured find,
Leaving no other quite behind.

Verse 4

Your lavish coat, a joy to stroke,
A thousand gentle memories spoke.
You'd find the sun, a golden gleam,
My special boy, a cherished dream.
Then backwards climb, a charming way,
You brightened every single day.
My last dear pup, my heart's delight,
You filled my world with pure soft light.

Bridge

I whispered low, as you took flight,
"I hope you know, with all my might,
How much I'll always love you, Sweetheart dear,
And hold your memory ever near."

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Rockman, my sweet baby boy,
You brought eleven years of joy.
For nine long months and years so bright,
You filled my world with pure delight.

Outro

Now in a sunbeam, soft and bright,
You sleep at peace, held in the light.
A golden warmth, that never fades,
My tiny boy, through endless days.

Outro - piano fade
