Snuggles' Bedside Song

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic piano, cello

Verse 1

The day you came, a tiny bark,
A whisper sweet right from the start.
You'd try to speak, a sound so true,
Like "mama" on your breath, Snuggles, just for you.
My doul dog, small and stout,
Chasing shadows all about.
A quiet comfort, soft and deep,
My little Frenchie, secrets to keep.

Chorus

Oh, Snuggles, my sweet Snuggles dear,
For fourteen gentle, loving years.
You filled my life with joy and grace,
A paw print on my heart's soft space.

Verse 2

When night would fall and stars would gleam,
You'd curl up close, a waking dream.
Beside me always, soft and warm,
Safe from every bitter storm.
Our camping trips beneath the sky,
We watched the world go passing by.
Those precious days, a cherished sight,
You brought a gentle, guiding light.

Chorus

Oh, Snuggles, my sweet Snuggles dear,
For fourteen gentle, loving years.

Snuggles' Bedside Song (continued)

You filled my life with joy and grace,
A paw print on my heart's soft space.

Bridge

My final whisper, soft and low,
"I love you, Snuggles," you should know.
One day I'll meet you, true and bright,
Never to be parted in endless light.

Instrumental - piano, soft guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Snuggles, my sweet Snuggles dear,
For fourteen gentle, loving years.
You filled my life with joy and grace,
A paw print on my heart's soft space.

Outro

Now in a field of endless green,
Beyond the bridge, a peaceful scene.
You're waiting there, without a care,
My Snuggles, resting, free as air.

Outro - piano fade
