My Son Pepper's Lullaby

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

My little boy, so small and bright
Our first walks filled with pure delight
Exploring paths, beneath the sky
Then cozy snuggles, you and I
In my own bed, a gentle sigh
As bedtime came, you nestled nigh
Such tender moments, soft and true
My heart belonged, dear boy, to you

Chorus

Oh, Pepper, my sweet little boy
Our 14 years, a never-ending joy
A precious bond, so pure and deep
Secrets we'd share, while others sleep

Verse 2

Each evening came, a cherished sight
On couch or bed, bathed in soft light
I'd hold you close, and gently kiss
Lost in our world of quiet bliss
Your furry head upon my chest
Where all my worries found their rest
A loving presence, soft and warm
You sheltered me from every storm

Chorus

Oh, Pepper, my sweet little boy
Our 14 years, a never-ending joy

My Son Pepper's Lullaby (continued)

A precious bond, so pure and deep
Secrets we'd share, while others sleep

Bridge

I love you forever, through endless time
A bond eternal, truly sublime
In Heaven's fields, you wait for me
Then running to my arms, we'll finally be Together again, forevermore
As we reunite, upon that shore

Instrumental - cello, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Pepper, my sweet little boy
Our 14 years, a never-ending joy
A precious bond, so pure and deep
Secrets we'd share, while others sleep

Outro

Now close beside me, still you stay
In your mahogany box, you gently lay
A silent presence, ever near
Until that day, when I am here
Resting with me, side by side
My sweet son, my love, my pride
Until that day, we meet again
My little boy, Pepper, amen.

Outro - piano fade
