Redgee's Gentle Paw

A Tribute Song

Intro

Piano, cello

Verse 1

The first light of morning, a soft gentle nudge
A red tabby shadow, no reason to begrudge
Your eyes on my face, a silent, sweet plea
Then a paw on my cheek, just for you and for me
For breakfast was calling, a hunger so deep
While I tried so hard, just a bit longer to sleep.

Chorus

Oh, Redgee, my dear, through nineteen long years
You banished my worries and dried all my tears
A love so profound, a bond truly bright
My beautiful cat, my morning, my night.

Verse 2

Then came the day, you'd jump on the board
My keyboard became your own soft, warm reward
You'd lay there so calm, with a knowing, warm gaze
As if to say "I'm here," through all of life's maze
A furry companion, so clever and smart
Always knew how to capture my heart.

Chorus

Oh, Redgee, my dear, through nineteen long years
You banished my worries and dried all my tears
A love so profound, a bond truly bright
My beautiful cat, my morning, my night.

Bridge

Now the quiet descends, and the memories grow
A whisper escapes, soft and gentle and low
"I love you, my Monkey Girl," forever it rings
The joy that you brought, on beautiful wings.

Instrumental

Piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Redgee, my dear, through nineteen long years
You banished my worries and dried all my tears
A love so profound, a bond truly bright
My beautiful cat, my morning, my night.

Outro

I know you are running, so graceful and free
Released from all burdens, for eternity
But I feel you are watching, a guardian so true
My heart is still healing, still grieving for you.

Outro - piano fade
