Jaka, My Sweet Boy

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

From the moment that you came into my life
You chased away the worry and the strife
A tiny Yorkipoo, with loyal eyes so bright
Wherever I went, you were always in my sight
My shadow on the floor, my comfort by my side
With every step I took, you were my faithful guide
A little furry friend, so happy and so small
Always there to answer, my every loving call

Chorus

Oh, Jaka, my sweet boy, for eleven cherished years
You filled my world with laughter, calming all my fears
A love so true, a heart so bold and free
You're still a part of every memory

Verse 2

Our morning walks, a gentle, joyful, happy start
You always knew the way to win my tender heart
Then nighttime snuggles, warm and soft and deep
Secrets we shared while the whole wide world would sleep
You'd curl up close, a soft and fuzzy ball
My loyal companion, through it all
A happy little wiggle, a tail that loved to thump
You'd always brighten up, no matter how I'd slump

Chorus

Oh, Jaka, my sweet boy, for eleven cherished years
You filled my world with laughter, calming all my fears

A love so true, a heart so bold and free
You're still a part of every memory

Bridge

I love you, little poo bear, Momma's so sorry you got sick
Every day I miss you, with every passing tick
Until I see you again, across that shining stream
You'll forever be my beautiful, cherished dream
The quiet moments linger, the joy you brought to me
A love like ours, forever meant to be

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, ukulele

Final Chorus

Oh, Jaka, my sweet boy, for eleven cherished years
You filled my world with laughter, calming all my fears
A love so true, a heart so bold and free
You're still a part of every memory

Outro - ukulele fade

Now running free, without a single pain
Playing with your toys, again and again
Sweet Jaka, dear heart, forever you will play
Guiding my spirit, light through every day
In fields of sunlit joy, you romp and softly leap
Your memory cherished, while my heart I keep.

Forever in our hearts
