Polaris, My Guiding Star

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, mandolin

Verse 1

At fifty-seven, a new life unfurled,
You were my first dog, my whole wide world.
An Arctic white husky, with fur so bright,
You thought I was a sled, ready for flight.
We walked woodland trails and sandy shores,
Opening up brand new adventure doors.
After losses, you filled my life with joy,
A happy dog, my beloved boy.

Chorus

Oh, Polaris, my shining, guiding star,
Eight wonderful years, no matter how far.
Your beautiful smile, a beacon so true,
My heart beats with love, just thinking of you.

Verse 2

On moonlit beaches, a magical scene,
Beneath the full moon, pure and serene.
You'd greet me with a smile, big and wide,
Always grateful, right by my side.
You knew I'd rescued you, a bond deep and true,
Every day was an adventure with you.
My life transformed, so bright and so free,
A happy beginning for you and for me.

Chorus

Oh, Polaris, my shining, guiding star,
Eight wonderful years, no matter how far.

Polaris, My Guiding Star (continued)

Your beautiful smile, a beacon so true,
My heart beats with love, just thinking of you.

Verse 3

In the front seat, you'd ride by my side,
To our favorite places, with nothing to hide.
I'd play Barry Manilow, "I Can't Smile Without You,"
And serenade you, my sweet husky, it's true.
You'd listen and smile, a moment so dear,
Chasing away every doubt and every fear.
Those car rides with you, a memory I keep,
As your spirit in my heart runs so deep.

Chorus

Oh, Polaris, my shining, guiding star,
Eight wonderful years, no matter how far.
Your beautiful smile, a beacon so true,
My heart beats with love, just thinking of you.

Bridge

You are never far, my faithful friend,
I feel your energy, 'til the very end.
When a white husky appears, out of the blue,
I know that your spirit is shining through.
A big hug for Mystique, a love to embrace,
You're always near, in time and in space.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, mandolin, percussion

Final Chorus

Oh, Polaris, my shining, guiding star,
Eight wonderful years, no matter how far.
Your beautiful smile, a beacon so true,
My heart beats with love, just thinking of you.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

Running towards me on a wooded trail,
A greeting of smiles, that will never fail.
Held you as you went, over the Rainbow Bridge,
Polaris Dog, always in my heart's rich pledge.
Mystique wears your tags, a promise so deep,
While your memory forever I'll keep.
