Molly's Butterfly Song

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, ukulele

Verse 1

From tiny steps and sable fur,
A little spirit, quick to stir.
We heard your warning, soft and low,
The sweetest little happy growl we know.
A pekingese with eyes so bright,
You filled our days with pure delight.
A furry friend, a loyal soul,
Making our broken spirits whole.

Chorus

Oh, Molly, sweet Molly, our sunshine in the rain,
Seventeen years, easing all our pain.
Now running free, chasing colors in the sky,
Our butterfly song, as the moments fly.

Verse 2

Each evening cozy on the couch,
No worry or no hint of slouch.
Your warm embrace, a gentle sigh,
As hours passed beneath the sky.
A quiet presence, always near,
Dispelling every doubt and fear.
Your silly quirks, a joyful art,
Forever etched within our heart.

Chorus

Oh, Molly, sweet Molly, our sunshine in the rain,
Seventeen years, easing all our pain.

Molly's Butterfly Song (continued)

Now running free, chasing colors in the sky,
Our butterfly song, as the moments fly.

Bridge

Love and miss you so much, we whisper to the breeze,
Among the rustling of the trees.
Though tears may fall, we understand,
We will meet again someday, holding paw in hand.

Instrumental - ukulele, light percussion

Final Chorus

Oh, Molly, sweet Molly, our sunshine in the rain,
Seventeen years, easing all our pain.
Now running free, chasing colors in the sky,
Our butterfly song, as the moments fly.

Outro

Running free where the wildflowers bloom,
Chasing butterflies, beyond any gloom.
A happy spirit, light and bright,
Dancing forever in eternal light.

Outro - ukulele fade
