Liam's Forest Journey

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, ukulele

Verse 1

The first time I saw you, a blur of pure grace,
A gazelle in the forest, finding your space.
Icelandic spirit, wild and so free,
A loyal companion, you came home with me.

Chorus

Oh, Liam, sweet Liam, my goodest old friend,
Sixteen years with you, 'til the very end.
Your paw in my hand, a joy in my heart,
A beautiful journey, right from the start.

Verse 2

The sunrise would call, or the day would grow dim,
Our walks in the forest, a peaceful, sweet hymn.
And sometimes a morsel, a treasured new prize,
Hidden deep in the sofa, right before our eyes.

Chorus

Oh, Liam, sweet Liam, my goodest old friend,
Sixteen years with you, 'til the very end.
Your paw in my hand, a joy in my heart,
A beautiful journey, right from the start.

Bridge

That last gentle whisper, a command clear and true,
"Get Sammy!" you barked, with a love shining through.
A playful last memory, a laugh and a tear,

Your spirit will live on, forever so clear.

Ukulele Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Liam, sweet Liam, my goodest old friend,
Sixteen years with you, 'til the very end.
Your paw in my hand, a joy in my heart,
A beautiful journey, right from the start.

Outro

Now you're running free in that forest so grand,
Continuing walks, in a celestial land.
A peaceful old dog, with nothing to fear,
We'll feel your presence, forever so near.

Outro - guitar fade
