Champ's Golden Echo

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

First to greet me in the morning light
A fluffy shadow, always by my side
You'd walk me out, then welcome me back home
Never letting me feel truly alone
Even when your steps grew slow and weak
That loyal spirit still tried hard to speak
So silly, playful, full of endless zest
My dearest Champ, you truly were the best

Chorus

Oh, Champ, my Champ, my heart still feels the ache
For ten wonderful years, for goodness gracious sake
A golden echo in every happy sound
The truest friendship that I ever found

Verse 2

We played catch ball, a joy in every toss
No moment with you ever felt like loss
You'd greet me at the door with joyful bark
A blazing warmth that banished every dark
You loved to cuddle close, a gentle weight
And melt my worries at the garden gate
With gentle fingers, wiping your sweet face
You filled our days with laughter and with grace

Chorus

Oh, Champ, my Champ, my heart still feels the ache
For ten wonderful years, for goodness gracious sake

A golden echo in every happy sound
The truest friendship that I ever found

Verse 3

So smart and social, loved a crowd's embrace
You'd win their hearts with charm in every space
Though Pierrot and Yuki might draw glances near You'd stay right by my side, dispelling fear
Your squeaky pig, named Edward, brought such glee
And finding hidden treats, a mystery
You'd dance in winter snow, a frosty king
And Christmas mornings, joy you used to bring

Chorus

Oh, Champ, my Champ, my heart still feels the ache
For ten wonderful years, for goodness gracious sake
A golden echo in every happy sound
The truest friendship that I ever found

Bridge

Oh Champ, my hardest goodbye, I confess
Thank you for all your golden tenderness
No pain will touch you now, my sweet old friend
So run wild free, your joyful race transcend
Jonathan and I will miss our park walks, true
And quiet moments, just me and you
Sleeping next to me, my big fan near the keys
We'll miss your barks for treats, or Pierrot's messy pleas

Instrumental - cello, piano, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Champ, my Champ, my heart still feels the ache
For ten wonderful years, for goodness gracious sake
A golden echo in every happy sound
The truest friendship that I ever found

Outro

Now running free, just zooming through the air
Bringing favorite rocks, without a care
Sniffing for nests, where bunnies squeak and hide
Little 'toys' you gather, by your side
My golden Champ, forever playing bright
Chasing sunbeams in eternal light

Outro - strings fade

Forever in our hearts
