Tank's Soulful Gaze

A Tribute Song

---

Intro - piano, gentle synth pads

Verse 1

The day we met, a memory so clear
A loyal Shepard, banishing all fear
Your gentle eyes, they looked into my soul
Making my broken spirit feel whole
With every glance, a promise you would keep
Watching over me while I was asleep
A silent bond, so pure and so profound
The best companion I had ever found

Chorus

Oh, Tank, my dear, it's been fifteen long years
We shared so much, through laughter and through tears
Your love's a song, a melody so sweet
A loyal heart, perfectly complete

Verse 2

We spent our evenings, quiet side by side
Watching the screen, with nothing left to hide
Your presence there, a comfort I could feel
Making every moment truly real
A gentle nudge, a sigh of deep content
On every single moment we had spent
Just you and I, in perfect harmony
The sweetest company, you were for me

Chorus

Oh, Tank, my dear, it's been fifteen long years
We shared so much, through laughter and through tears

---

Your love's a song, a melody so sweet
A loyal heart, perfectly complete

Bridge

Though time may pass, and seasons turn anew
My love for you will always see me through
I whispered soft, as you began to fade
"I will always love you," a promise I made

Instrumental - fingerpicked acoustic guitar, soft strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Tank, my dear, it's been fifteen long years
We shared so much, through laughter and through tears
Your love's a song, a melody so sweet
A loyal heart, perfectly complete

Outro

Now you're running free, in fields of endless green
With brothers, sisters, a joyful, peaceful scene
No pain, no sorrow, just freedom in your stride
Forever in my heart, where you will always reside

Outro - piano fade

Forever in our hearts
