CoCo's Loving Gaze

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, ukulele

Verse 1

A tiny paw, a fluffy form so small,
You looked at me and gave your heart to all.
With eyes of love, you calmed my worried mind,
A gentle presence, one of a kind.
My anxiety would slowly fade away,
You filled my lonely world with joy each day.
A Pomeranian, brave and sweet and true,
The world felt brighter, just because of you.

Chorus

Oh, CoCo, sweet CoCo, my dear friend,
Fourteen precious years, right to the end.
A love so pure, a bond so deep and vast,
Memories of you are forever meant to last.

Verse 2

When evening fell, and day was almost done,
We'd curl up close beneath the setting sun.
On the couch you'd snuggle, warm against my side,
Nowhere else I'd rather be, nowhere to hide.
And when I walked back through that open door,
Your happy greetings made my spirit soar.
A wagging tail, a joyful, little sound,
The happiest dog that could ever be found.

Chorus

Oh, CoCo, sweet CoCo, my dear friend,
Fourteen precious years, right to the end.

A love so pure, a bond so deep and vast,
Memories of you are forever meant to last.

Bridge

I know you're waiting, watching from above,
My heart's not whole without your gentle love.
I can't wait to see your sweet face once again,
I miss you, sweet girl, till then, till then.

Instrumental - ukulele, harmonica

Final Chorus

Oh, CoCo, sweet CoCo, my dear friend,
Fourteen precious years, right to the end.
A love so pure, a bond so deep and vast,
Memories of you are forever meant to last.

Outro

Now running free, no shadow of old pain,
Beneath the sun, and through the gentle rain.
You're looking down, a guardian from the skies,
A peaceful spirit, with loving, watching eyes.

Outro - guitar fade
