Passion's Fierce Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

From the streets, you found your way to me,
A Rottweiler heart, wild and free.
Never said no to the dog park's call,
Or digging treasures, standing proud and tall.
You'd drag out every toy, a playful mess,
Then snuggle close, with gentle tenderness.
My fierce defender, you loved your daddy best,
Though with Mom and baby, you'd allow us rest.

Chorus

Oh, Passion, my dear, my faithful friend,
Sixteen best years, right to the end.
Deeply loved, now sorely missed each day,
Always in our hearts, you'll forever stay.

Verse 2

Always on watch for your favorite face,
To play catch outside, in your happy place.
Just hanging out, beneath the sky so wide,
With quiet wisdom, right there by my side.
A bit grouchy sometimes, in your elder grace,
But tolerated all, with warmth and space.
You lived your best life, after that tough start,
Leaving paw prints etched deep in my heart.

Chorus

Oh, Passion, my dear, my faithful friend,
Sixteen best years, right to the end.

Deeply loved, now sorely missed each day,
Always in our hearts, you'll forever stay.

Bridge

You were the best dog ever, it's true,
Loved and spoiled, cherished through and through.
Run free, my friend, with joy and light,
Run free into the endless, golden light.

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Passion, my dear, my faithful friend,
Sixteen best years, right to the end.
Deeply loved, now sorely missed each day,
Always in our hearts, you'll forever stay.

Outro

Now you're running free, on a healthy leg,
No more pain, no need to beg.
Just love and joy, in your heart and soul,
Thankful for your time, making my life whole.
Until we meet again, my sweet, loyal friend,
Your spirit soars, beyond the rainbow's bend.

Outro - guitar fade
