Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

I recall the first time, your sweet eyes on me,
A tiny shadow, always wanting to see.
If I spoke to another, you'd climb on my knee,
And shower me with kisses, just for me to be.

Chorus

Oh, sweet Luke, my dear, after sixteen years,
You calmed all my worries and dried all my tears.
A love so pure, banishing all fears,
Your memory lives on, through all of these years.

Verse 2

We'd go to the park, where the sun shone so bright,
You'd chase after squirrels, with all of your might.
A tiny brave warrior, filled with pure light,
My joyful companion, a beautiful sight.

Chorus

Oh, sweet Luke, my dear, after sixteen years,
You calmed all my worries and dried all my tears.
A love so pure, banishing all fears,

Your memory lives on, through all of these years.

Bridge

I'm so sorry, my sweet one, I couldn't help you more,
My heart broke in pieces right down to the core.
That decision was heavy, an ache I still bore,
But Mama loves you, forever and evermore.

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, sweet Luke, my dear, after sixteen years,
You calmed all my worries and dried all of my tears.
A love so pure, banishing all fears,
Your memory lives on, through all of these years.

Outro

Now you're in heaven, with sunshine so grand,
Surrounded by flowers, in a beautiful land.
With Dad and my family, a loving, warm band,
Resting peacefully, a paw in their hand.

Outro - piano, cello fade
