Aspen, My Bright Sky

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

That first sweet day, you came into my life,
A fluffy giant, calming every strife.
Your gentle snuggles, a warmth I still recall,
A big Newfoundland, standing strong and tall.
Your paws so wide, your fur a comforting sight,
You filled my world with pure and gentle light.
From that first moment, my heart knew it was true,
There was no other love, quite like you.

Chorus

Oh, Aspen, my dear friend, you taught me how to fly,
Nine precious years beneath our sunny sky.
Your spirit dances, joyful and so free,
A part of every memory for me.

Verse 2

No single moment, but every day we shared,
A special bond, beyond what words declared.
Your quiet presence, a comforting, soft sigh,
A steady heartbeat, beneath a watchful eye.
Through quiet mornings and sun-drenched afternoons,
You hummed along to life's sweetest tunes.
Your gentle spirit, a constant, loving grace,
Always a smile upon your dear sweet face.

Chorus

Oh, Aspen, my dear friend, you taught me how to fly,
Nine precious years beneath our sunny sky.

Aspen, My Bright Sky (continued)

Your spirit dances, joyful and so free,
A part of every memory for me.

Bridge

I will think of you everyday, my sweet,
A loving echo, beautifully complete.
Though tears may fall, I know you're waiting bright,
Shining like a star in heaven's gentle light.

Instrumental - piano, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Aspen, my dear friend, you taught me how to fly,
Nine precious years beneath our sunny sky.
Your spirit dances, joyful and so free,
A part of every memory for me.

Outro - guitar fade

You're with my parents now, and brothers, too,
A joyful reunion, waiting there for you.
Running wild and free, a peaceful, happy dream,
Forever loved, my bright and shining beam.

Forever in our hearts
