Thomas's Gentle Purr

A Tribute Song

Intro - grand piano

Verse 1

The first time I saw you, a light filled the room,
You lay on my bed, chasing shadows and gloom.
A small furry friend, with a purr like a hum,
Then curled on my lap, my sweet companion had come.
You spoke to me softly, with meows and with sighs,
A gentle soul shining, in your beautiful eyes.
So calm and so chill, a spirit so free,
From that moment on, you belonged here with me.

Chorus

Oh, Thomas, my love, fifteen years flew by fast,
A beautiful friendship, forever to last.
Your gentle purr lingers, a soft, sweet refrain,
Washing away all the sorrow and pain.

Verse 2

Each morning we woke, a ritual so sweet,
With gentle head nuzzles, a purr hard to beat.
So loud and so steady, a comforting sound,
The best buddy ever, the best I had found.
Your loving heart guided, on journeys unknown,
Exploring the world, making every spot your own.
A spirit so brave, yet so soft and so kind,
A treasure of memories, you've left here behind.

Chorus

Oh, Thomas, my love, fifteen years flew by fast,
A beautiful friendship, forever to last.

Your gentle purr lingers, a soft, sweet refrain,
Washing away all the sorrow and pain.

Bridge

I whisper your name, though you're out of my sight,
"I love you so much," with all of my might.
"I miss you," my darling, more than words can say,
"Thank you for being the best buddy every day."

Instrumental - cello, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Thomas, my love, fifteen years flew by fast,
A beautiful friendship, forever to last.
Your gentle purr lingers, a soft, sweet refrain,
Washing away all the sorrow and pain.

Outro

No pain holds you captive, no sorrow can stay,
Just endless exploring, throughout your new day.
Run free, my sweet Thomas, your spirit takes flight,
Purr loudly forever, in heavenly light.
