Alfie's Nudging Hand

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

Oh Alfie, our lil boy, with fur so soft and light,
You'd find your spot beside me, morning, noon, and night.
On the couch, a gentle presence, always by my side,
A nudging paw, a soft request, nowhere left to hide.

Chorus

Alfie, our sweet boy, a love so pure and true,
Nine years of warmth and comfort, given just by you.
Through every day, a faithful friend, a spirit bright and free,
Forever in our memories, for all the world to see.

Verse 2

When night arrived, the covers pulled, your snuggles eased our day,
And at the bus stop, waiting there, you'd chase our fears away.
Those little paws upon the floor, a welcome sound we'd know,
A loyal heart, a happy wag, where our loving bond would grow.

Chorus

Alfie, our sweet boy, a love so pure and true,
Nine years of warmth and comfort, given just by you.
Through every day, a faithful friend, a spirit bright and free,
Forever in our memories, for all the world to see.

Bridge

Thank you, Alfie, for the love that only you could bring,
For laughter that would fill our home, like birds upon the wing.
Nine years of joy, a precious gift, your spirit soft and kind,

The unconditional love you gave, a treasure left behind.

Instrumental - harmonica solo

Final Chorus

Alfie, our sweet boy, a love so pure and true,
Nine years of warmth and comfort, given just by you.
Through every day, a faithful friend, a spirit bright and free,
Forever in our memories, for all the world to see.

Outro

Now running free, your fur ablaze, beneath the morning sun,
With endless treats and happy barks, your journey brightly spun.
A peaceful dream, a gentle rest, where soft winds softly play,
Alfie, our dear lil boy, you're free to run and play.

Outro - guitar fade
