Lily Sparkle's Forever Smile

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, light percussion

Verse 1

The day you came, a tiny spark,
A smile so bright erased the dark.
A lively bark, a joyful sound,
The sweetest spirit could be found.
My little Yorkie, small and grand,
The dearest friend in all the land.
Your joyful spirit, pure and free,
A song of love you sang for me.

Chorus

Oh, Lily Sparkle, bright and true,
For fourteen years, my love for you grew.
Now an angel watching from above,
Surrounded by eternal love.

Verse 2

That happy greeting at the door,
The sight I longed to see once more.
Your sweet face beaming, full of glee,
You'd run right over, just for me.
For snuggles soft and tender kiss,
A moment filled with purest bliss.
Your gentle comfort, warm and kind,
The truest friend I'll ever find.

Chorus

Oh, Lily Sparkle, bright and true,
For fourteen years, my love for you grew.

Lily Sparkle's Forever Smile (continued)

Now an angel watching from above,
Surrounded by eternal love.

Bridge

Mommy loves you to the moon and back,
Forever on life's shining track.
My baby always, you will be,
A precious part of memory.

Ukulele Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Lily Sparkle, bright and true,
For fourteen years, my love for you grew.
Now an angel watching from above,
Surrounded by eternal love.

Outro

You're watching over, from the skies,
No pain or sorrow in your eyes.
Just running free, with every breath,
Beyond the reach of time and death.
My Lily Sparkle, shining bright,
You fill my world with endless light.

Outro - ukulele fade
