Eighteen Years of Love

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

From the moment you barked, so tiny and sweet,
With kisses so warm, our first time we'd meet.
Two little Chihuahuas, so full of delight,
Bringing sunshine and joy, morning and night.
Your small loving hearts, beat strong and so bold,
A story of friendship, forever untold.
You filled every corner, with laughter and grace,
Leaving paw prints of love, in this sacred space.

Chorus

Blacky and Choko, my dear friends so true,
Eighteen long years, my heart belonged to you.
A bond forged in heaven, a love without end,
My loyal companions, until the very end.

Verse 2

Each morning we woke, for our gentle embrace,
A cuddle so soft, in your favorite place.
Then the joyful excitement, when I'd walk through the door,
Tiny tails wagging fast, asking always for more.
Small bodies of courage, so full of pure cheer,
Chasing shadows and dreams, banishing all fear.
Every day was an adventure, a playful new game,
Whispering your sweet names, always the same.

Chorus

Blacky and Choko, my dear friends so true,
Eighteen long years, my heart belonged to you.

Eighteen Years of Love (continued)

A bond forged in heaven, a love without end,
My loyal companions, until the very end.

Bridge

Chase all the squirrels now, run free from all pain,
Through green fields of sunshine, and gentle soft rain.
I will find both one day, my sweet, faithful pair,
I love you both and miss you, beyond all compare.

Instrumental - piano, soft strings

Final Chorus

Blacky and Choko, my dear friends so true,
Eighteen long years, my heart belonged to you.
A bond forged in heaven, a love without end,
My loyal companions, until the very end.

Outro

Running free, playing together, with spirits so light,
Watching over the Rainbow Bridge, shining ever so bright.
Peaceful and resting, in heaven's soft grace,
Forever in my heart, in your special place.
