Tosca's Thirteen Years

A Tribute Song

Intro - cello, piano

Verse 1

A champagne coat, a graceful sight,
With eyes of brown that shone so bright.
They gazed right through, deep to my soul,
Making my fractured spirit whole.
A brilliant chaser, swift and free,
The park, the harbor, she loved to be.
Beneath the stars, a happy chase,
Joy etched upon her lovely face.

Chorus

Oh, Tosca, my soulmate, sweet and true,
In just thirteen years, a lifetime with you.
If love could have saved you, you would have stayed near,
My beautiful friend, forever held dear.

Verse 2

Her greatest joy, a daring dream,
To launch herself across the stream.
A "leap of faith," she'd fly and soar,
Splashing down, then asking for more.
Each morning dawned with your soft head,
Cuddling close in our warm bed.
And every night, before I'd sleep,
Your loving kiss, a promise to keep.

Chorus

Oh, Tosca, my soulmate, sweet and true,
In just thirteen years, a lifetime with you.

If love could have saved you, you would have stayed near,
My beautiful friend, forever held dear.

Verse 3

You seemed to know my every thought,
A silent language, truly taught.
No words were needed, just a glance,
A perfect, tender, soulful dance.
By ocean's edge, or sunlit quay,
You walked beside me, come what may.
My quiet confidante, my guide,
Always knowing, at my side.

Chorus

Oh, Tosca, my soulmate, sweet and true,
In just thirteen years, a lifetime with you.
If love could have saved you, you would have stayed near,
My beautiful friend, forever held dear.

Bridge

If love could have saved you, you would have lived forever, my dear.
The thought of our reunion dries every tear.
I'll be there soon to play ball in the park, bathed in the light,
And cuddle you close, to sleep softly through the night.

Instrumental - violins, piano, French horn

Final Chorus

Oh, Tosca, my soulmate, sweet and true,
In just thirteen years, a lifetime with you.
If love could have saved you, you would have stayed near,
My beautiful friend, forever held dear.

Outro - strings fade, piano

Now in a fluffy bed, legs in the air,
Waiting for tummy rubs, without a care.
Or running in sunshine, joyous and free,
Forever in my heart, you'll always be.

Forever in our hearts
