Bella's Endless Garden

A Tribute Song

---

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

A tiny fluff of pure white grace,
A gentle soul in a loving space.
Your beautiful eyes, so deep and true,
Greeted my mornings, saw me through.
They were the first light of my day,
And last I saw before I'd pray.
Without you near, my days feel strange,
Through every season, every change.

Chorus

Oh, Bella, my sweet, my precious girl,
You were the center of my world.
For nearly fifteen cherished years,
You dried away my every tear.

Verse 2

Each second, minute, hour we shared,
A constant bond, beyond compared.
You were my life, my every breath,
Defying any thought of death.
Your quiet joy, your softest sigh,
A gentle comfort passing by.
You taught me how to truly see,
The simple gifts of being free.

Chorus

Oh, Bella, my sweet, my precious girl,
You were the center of my world.

For nearly fifteen cherished years,
You dried away my every tear.

Bridge

Go and run free, my love, don't you worry and don't look back,
Be happy now upon your track.
Mommy is fine, we'll meet again,
My little girl, until then.
I love you, Bella, thank you for all you've been.

Instrumental - strings, harp

Final Chorus

Oh, Bella, my sweet, my precious girl,
You were the center of my world.
For nearly fifteen cherished years,
You dried away my every tear.

Outro

Now you run in fields of green,
The most beautiful garden ever seen.
Young and vibrant, free from pain,
Love and happiness flow like rain.
A gentle breeze, a sunlit glade,
A perfect peace that will not fade.

Outro - cello fade

Forever in our hearts
