Lilbit's Green Grass Run

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

From the moment you came, a Lab so sweet and true,
Each morning you'd greet me, a loving nudge from you.
I'd feel your soft presence, your toenails on the floor,
Following every step, always wanting more.
My shadow and friend, a loyal heart so kind,
Leaving no moment, no memory behind.
You filled every room with your happy, wagging tail,
A presence so constant, it would never fail.

Chorus

Oh, Lilbit, my dear, our thirteen cherished years,
Though now we're apart, I'll smile through all the tears.
Your spirit runs free, under skies bright and vast,
A love in my heart, forever built to last.

Verse 2

The sun would just rise, a whisper in the air,
To the end of the pier, our morning walk we'd share.
The scent of the ocean, the cool breeze on your face,
Finding joy in small things, with such an easy grace.
Every journey we took, a treasure to behold,
More precious than silver, or stories ever told.
You taught me to savour, each simple, golden day,
Chasing shadows and worries, far, far away.

Chorus

Oh, Lilbit, my dear, our thirteen cherished years,
Though now we're apart, I'll smile through all the tears.

Your spirit runs free, under skies bright and vast,
A love in my heart, forever built to last.

Bridge

So chase squirrels and duck, run free, my love,
With my love within you, sent from skies above.
A happy, bright spirit, forever unbound,
On sacred, sweet green grass, where true peace is found.

Instrumental - electric guitar, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Lilbit, my dear, our thirteen cherished years,
Though now we're apart, I'll smile through all the tears.
Your spirit runs free, under skies bright and vast,
A love in my heart, forever built to last!

Outro - guitar fade

Running free and happy, in dandelions you play,
On green grass so peaceful, forever and a day.
My sweet Lilbit, running, free and bright and true,
My heart sings your story, always missing you.

Forever in our hearts
