Indi, Running Free

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, banjo

Verse 1

That first big smile, a memory so clear,
Barking for treats, banishing all fear.
A Coonhound's spirit, a Rottweiler's heart,
From day one, we knew you'd play a special part.
A playful soul, with a loving embrace,
Bringing joy and laughter to every place.
Your paws ran wild, your tail wagged with might,
Always shining, a beacon of pure light.

Chorus

Oh, Indi, our companion, loyal and true,
Fourteen and a half years we spent with you.
A lifetime of love, a spirit so grand,
The best dog, paws down, in all the land.
We celebrate the joy you brought each day,
And though you're gone, your love will always stay.

Verse 2

Every single moment, a gift from above,
Our days were filled with your boundless love.
Running and hiding, a game you adored,
For tasty treats, your whole being implored.
A furry shadow, always close at hand,
The sweetest friend in all of the land.
Your silly quirks, a treasure to recall,
You gave your heart and soul, giving your all.

Chorus

Indi, Running Free (continued)

Oh, Indi, our companion, loyal and true,
Fourteen and a half years we spent with you.
A lifetime of love, a spirit so grand,
The best dog, paws down, in all the land.
We celebrate the joy you brought each day,
And though you're gone, your love will always stay.

Bridge

I miss you every second of every day, it's true,
Every quiet moment, I think of you.
I hope you're running super fast, with no pain,
Chasing the sunshine, through the golden rain.

Fiddle Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Indi, our companion, loyal and true,
Fourteen and a half years we spent with you.
A lifetime of love, a spirit so grand,
The best dog, paws down, in all the land.
We celebrate the joy you brought each day,
And though you're gone, your love will always stay.

Outro - banjo fade

Now you're running free, hiding and at peace,
Eating all the treats, your joy will never cease.
A perfect dream, beneath the endless sky,
Our dear Indi, we'll love you till we die.

Forever in our hearts
