Rosie's Faithful Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

I remember when you were so small, a tiny baby sweet
Walking beside me, standing so tall, following my feet
My bed buddy, warm and near, chasing Lady and Abby's playful might
You banished every anxious fear, filling my world with light

Chorus

Oh, Rosie, my sweet Rosie, fifteen and a half years strong
Your faithful heart, my guiding star, where I truly belong
Side by side, never apart, through every changing scene
You captured all my loving heart, my ever-present queen

Verse 2

Each morning sun, each passing day, I'd search for your soft gaze
And 100% of the time, I'd find you looking my way
You chased the butterflies with glee, a dancer in the air
Your joy was always plain to see, beyond compare

Chorus

Oh, Rosie, my sweet Rosie, fifteen and a half years strong
Your faithful heart, my guiding star, where I truly belong
Side by side, never apart, through every changing scene
You captured all my loving heart, my ever-present queen

Bridge

You're the best baby I've ever known, a love so pure and deep
As you dream your quiet world alone, secrets you now keep
I will always and forever love you, this truth will never cease

I know someday, our bond anew, we'll find eternal peace

Instrumental

Instrumental - piano, cello

Final Chorus

Oh, Rosie, my sweet Rosie, fifteen and a half years strong
Your faithful heart, my guiding star, where I truly belong
Side by side, never apart, through every changing scene
You captured all my loving heart, my ever-present queen

Outro

Now you rest in gentle grace, a peaceful, soft embrace
A quiet slumber, time and space, until we meet again someday

Outro - guitar fade

Forever in our hearts
