Bailey's Golden Light

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

I remember the first time, your head on my shoulder, so deep,
That comforting scent, a promise my soul would keep.
Your warm brown eyes, a pure peace I always found,
My sweet solace, where love knew no bound.
A golden shadow, always by my side,
Through every worry, you were my guide.
A gentle spirit, a loyal heart so true,
My world was brighter, just because of you.

Chorus

Oh, Bailey, my love, how the years flew by,
Seven and a half, beneath our sky.
My angel dog, my precious bear,
A love like ours, beyond compare.

Verse 2

The mornings began with your sweet little growl,
Then peaceful moments, watching the world from the prow.
On our front porch, just you and I, so still,
Your gentle presence, a comfort, a thrill.
No matter how far, you'd always seek me out,
Chasing away every shadow of doubt.
Your loving spirit, always searching near,
Banishing every silent tear.

Chorus

Oh, Bailey, my love, how the years flew by,
Seven and a half, beneath our sky.

Bailey's Golden Light (continued)

My angel dog, my precious bear,
A love like ours, beyond compare.

Verse 3

With wagging tail, a feather duster bright,
You filled our home with so much joy and light.
A faithful friend, through laughter and through tears,
You chased away my quietest fears.
Each sunny spot, a place you'd softly claim,
Whispering comfort, just by your sweet name.
Your paw in mine, a silent, tender plea,
The greatest gift, you were to me.

Chorus

Oh, Bailey, my love, how the years flew by,
Seven and a half, beneath our sky.
My angel dog, my precious bear,
A love like ours, beyond compare.

Bridge

My angel dog, my beautiful Bailey Bear,
Mama loves you so much, beyond all compare.
Be free and rest, let your spirit take flight,
I'll find you again, in the endless light.

Instrumental - cello, strings, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Bailey, my love, how the years flew by,
Seven and a half, beneath our sky.
My angel dog, my precious bear,
A love like ours, beyond compare.

Outro - strings fade, piano

Now lying in the sun, with stuffies all around,
An endless supply of chicken wings, no pain to be found.
No more swelling, no T-shirts, no bandages tight,
Just your happy grin, your eyes so bright.
Your feather duster wagging, joyous and free,
Forever in my heart, you'll always be.

Outro - strings fade, piano fades
